To Old Geelong Collegians at the War.

Dear Old Boy,

We send you congratulations upon your noble work for the Empire, and the warmest greetings and good wishes for Xmas and New Year, from the members of the Association,

The Association has done its best to reach you every term with a copy of the "College Pegasus," which we hope you have appreciated.

We are always glad to have letters from you at our Old Boys' Office, James Street, Geelong.

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

ROBERT C. BELL, President.

STANLEY B. CALVERT,

Hon. Secretary..

James Street,
Geelong.

28/8/18.

THE Third Term of 1918 begins on Wednesday, September 18th.

On June 5th, the first day of term, the Rev. J. J. Hastie attended morning assembly and briefly addressed the School. He advised the boys to live up to Carlyle's dictum to "reach one's utmost pitch," and afterwards he retailed some interesting episodes recorded in letters received from the Rev. J. A. Forrest.

On June 26th, the Right Reverend the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Victoria, Chaplain-Colonel D. McCrae Stewart, paid a visit to the School. He was accompanied by Mr. Charles Shannon, the Rev. J. J. Hastie, and Mr. S. B. Calvert. After Mr. Hastie had read prayers, and the boys had sung "Homeland," the Moderator addressed the School on the subject of "Loyalty." He pointed out that the boys at the Front have come back to that warm, personal feeling of loyalty that the word itself originally meant—a personal bond between two people. This has come (1) through their comradeships; (2) through their appreciation of the wrongs done to the people in whose country they are fighting; (3) through their loyalty to the King being strengthened by the feeling that he and his stood for their homes and friends. "Home" to them means those whom they love and those who love them; this feeling keeps them in all dangers and temptations. The power of home is a mighty, binding force at the present time; the Church has appealed to many of the boys at the Front mainly through the personal element. He concluded by appealing to the boys to keep up past traditions.

During the term we had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. Leslie Jenner, who has had extensive experience of Y.M.C.A. work, having been appointed a commissioner by the National Committee of the Y.M.C.A. The boys thoroughly appreciated the talk, and the time was all too short to listen to Mr. Jenner's amusing and instructive relation of his experiences.

We wish to acknowledge with thanks the gift of a large parcel of books from Mr. G. O. Lyon, of Surrey Hills, donated to the Library in memory of his son, Lieut. C. H. Lyon, who was killed in Palestine last year. Mr. C. Shannon, too, has laid the Library, under a further obligation by the gift of some magazines.

A framed photograph of the late Lance-Corporal A. Brook Wilson has been hung in the Fifth Form Classroom. It is the gift of his sister, Mrs. Andrew Wilson.

On two occasions during the term the boarders were given the opportunity of hearing Mr. Alexander Watson in his elocutionary recitals. They were highly pleased at the entertainment provided, and were particularly impressed with the magnificent rendering of the principal scenes from Macbeth. Another entertainment that was thoroughly enjoyed was the comedietta, "Old Boys," and several Collegians distinguished themselves by their spirited bidding for a box of chocolates put up by auction for the Christmas Box Fund for Soldiers.

The date of the Annual Athletic Sports has been fixed for October 12th, when it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of Old Collegians and supporters of the School.

We regret that in the May issue, through inadvertence, we did not include Gordon Sloane's name among those who passed the Senior Examination last Christmas. He is now in residence at Ormond College, studying engineering.

Postcards have been received from France from Privates G. Taylor and B. Moon, gratefully acknowledging the "smokes" sent by the boys, some considerable time ago.

Football.

The approach of the football season gave rise to considerable speculation concerning the College team ; and in view of the exceptionally heavy losses from last year's Eighteen, it was admitted inevitably that the 1918 team would at least be "very young and very light." The difficulty of holding lads of eighteen who feel the call to honour must be felt in all the schools. For this and other reasons, no fewer than fourteen of last year's players have left school.

The committee-men appointed for the year were J. Hawkes (from last year), E. G. M. Riggall, W. R. Macpherson, F. R. Apted, and A. R. Moreton. "Ned" Riggall was elected to the responsibility of the captaincy, with Jack Hawkes as vice-captain; and committee, old players and aspiring members of the team, together with "Coach" Rankin, looked forward to a season's play that would do credit to the College.

We were pleased to welcome J. B. Paterson as a newcomer and an acquisition, and congratulate the many "seconds" and "juniors" of last year on their promotion to Public School football rank.

After the first few practice games, the loss of A. Moreton's sterling services for the year, owing to an injured knee, was assured, and the fact was received with general regret and sympathy. It was sincerely hoped that the winter might be safely passed without some sinister germ exploiting the College; for these propagandists of epidemic seem to delight in bringing down the most reliable men on the field with an unsportsmanlike "push in the back."

PUBLIC SCHOOL MATCHES.

COLLEGE v. XAVIER COLLEGE.

The usual opening game was played against Xavier College, this year on the Corio Oval, on Thursday, July 11th. The weather conditions were fairly favourable, excepting for a rather strong wind that particularly affected the first half of the game.

The College team consisted of—W. N. Ricketts, L. P. W. Brooke, P. Adzen, W. R. Macpherson, F. Apted, W. Sharland, C. C. Bell, L, Morton, J. K. Carmichael, F. M. Lee, J. B. Paterson, R. McArthur, J. R. D'Helin, F. Steele, H. C. R. Quick, E. Riggall (capt.), W. L. Langslow, J. B. Hawkes.

Opening with the wind the College soon had the play amongst their opponents' back lines, and attacking cleanly, four goals were quickly secured, Langslow getting two. The Xavier captain brought an extra man back, but the appearance of Sharland forward equalised the man power, and gave him the opportunity for some very fine marks, in which he was well seconded by Paterson. Yet Xavier broke through several times, and by clean, fast play, secured one goal four behinds against the College's 4 goals 3 behinds.

The change of ends put the strain now on our backs, and they, well assisted by the ruck, prevented their opponents from scoring freely. L. Morton was playing well in the centre, and J. Hawkes made several brilliant dashes, while Macpherson's work for the defence was strong, and at times clever. The scores at half-time were—

Xavier College	—	4 goals 5 behinds.	(29 points)
Geelong College	—	4 goals 4 behinds.	(28 points)

On the resumption of play, the wind had dropped considerably, to our disadvantage. Xavier, however, just before the interval, had suffered the misfortune of Rush, their captain, having to leave the field with a badly turned ankle. He was able to retake the field later, and playing forward, kicked a goal and some behinds; but he was missed from the centre, where he had been playing a very sound game. The College team was storming strongly for some time, but the only goal came from J. Hawkes. An old fault began to show up in the failure often to get a good long kick when opportunity served. The visiting team, on the other hand, were strikingly correct, and began to strengthen their game with fast open play. But it was in the last quarter that they showed, themselves to be a splendid co-operation. Their marking throughout had been good; and when this was supported by good system, and constant success in getting the odd man, improved kicking brought goals in quick succession. Obviously tired, our backs worked hard, and several times gave us the opportunity within striking distance. At last F. Steele brought off a flying shot, but further than this only one behind was added. The last quarter opened with Xavier 6 goals 8 behinds against 5 goals 7 behinds; while the final scores were—

Xavier College — 12 goals 12 behinds. (84 points)
 Geelong College — 6 goals 8 behinds. (44 points)

Goal-kickers.—Xavier: McCauley (3), Hurley (2), J. Long (2), Connelly (2), Rush, Cook and Keane. Geelong: Langslow (2), Hawkes (2), R. McArthur, F. Steele.

The most prominent on the winning side were Rush, Connors, Cook, Keane, Connelly, Hyland, and Costigan; and for the College, Riggall, Hawkes, Morton, Langslow, Macpherson, Sharland, Paterson, and D'Helin. It was pleasing to notice the promising start made by several of the younger players, whose game should improve considerably as the season provides them with experience and confidence.

The field umpire was McMurray; our representative on the boundary being R. Rand, who did very well. J. Steele again took the position of goal umpire.

COLLEGE v. SCOTCH COLLEGE.

Excellent weather prevailed for the match against Scotch, on the M.C.C., on Friday, July 19th. The only change in the team from the recent match against Xavier was that Colin McArthur took Adzen's place on the back line. "A good go" was anticipated on all sides, an expectation that was quite fulfilled.

During the first quarter Scotch certainly had most of the play. Good defensive work was done by Macpherson, and C. McArthur was making a promising beginning; but the College team had hardly warmed to the game when the bell went, the first quarter's score being Scotch 2 goals 8 behinds, to nil.

The change brought a satisfactory improvement. Jack Hawkes, playing full forward, got two goals in good style; D'Helin and R. McArthur were helping soundly, and Quick added another goal from a free kick. Melville and Taylor were marking finely for Scotch, who scored successfully twice. The scores at half-time were—

Scotch —4 goals 13 behinds. (37 points)
 Geelong—3 goals 5 behinds. (23 points)

THE PEGASUS

On re-commencing, the Melbourne team showed improvement in system and in kicking. Grant was roving spiritedly, and the high marking was still good. Bell was showing good dash for us, and R. McArthur was doing reliable work forward, securing one goal. But the quarter closed with Scotch 34 points in the lead, and playing strongly.

The final quarter, so often our weak one, this time left no cause for complaint. For a while it seemed that the scores might be equalised. Sharland marked well in the air several times; Hawkes fought keenly for two more goals; Morton, centre, and D'Helin, forward, both contributed valuable work. But a couple of cases of kicking into the man on the mark seemed the point at which the attack turned, and Scotch, in the last ten minutes, finished well with three more goals. The final result was—

Scotch College — 10 goals 19 behinds. (79 points)

Geelong College — 7 goals 6 behinds. (48 points)

The following secured goals—Scotch: Taylor (2), Smith (2), Morrison (2), Melville, Cock, Francis, and Almond. Geelong: Hawkes (4), Quick, R. McArthur, and Sharland.

It was gratifying to see many of the prominent faults of the previous game rectified, particularly in getting the kick, backs minding their men, and forwards keeping the play open.

Moxham umpired strictly.

COLLEGE v. MELBOURNE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

This match was played on the M.C.C., on August 2nd, in perfect weather, with no alteration in the team from the previous match. Having beaten Melbourne Grammar in a practice game some weeks before under the very worst of bad weather conditions, we wondered if the success could be repeated on a fast, dry day. With the exception of the first quarter, the best anticipations were realised, and although the football was not of the highest character, a well fought game resulted.

Grammar got away with good dash from the bounce, and seemed in for a big score. Free kicks came plentifully against us, and although the backs, particularly Macpherson, C. McArthur, and Ricketts, put in good defensive work, the score mounted quickly. Joyce, full forward, was doing strong work for the attacking team, and at quarter time Melbourne Grammar had scored 5 goals 4 behinds to 1 behind,

As in the game against Scotch, the College rallied on the change of ends; but there was a long, uphill fight ahead, and a strong side to wear down. Sharland, from ruck, marked brilliantly, and repeatedly sent the ball forward, where Hawkes fought for openings to score. He secured one goal, his example being followed by R. McArthur, Sharland, and Ricketts, and at the interval the scores looked more hopeful.

Melbourne Grammar School — 6 goals 7 behinds.
 Geelong College — 4 goals 5 behinds.

The third quarter saw a rally from the Melbourne team, and they drew a little further ahead, closing the period with 23 points in the lead, the board showing—

Melbourne Grammar School — 8 goals 10 behinds.
 Geelong College — 5 goals 5 behinds.

Continuing to play strongly, Grammar began the attack in the last quarter. But the backs rallied finely, Macpherson and C. McArthur again being most prominent, and some smart work by D'Helin, Steele, and Hawkes, brought the play back in our favour. Steele scored, and from then on the play remained fairly even, Melbourne Grammar scoring 5 behinds to the College's 1 goal 4 behinds. The game was played out strongly to the finish, and but for the first quarter—who can tell? The final scores were—

Melbourne Grammar — 8 goals 15 behinds.
 Geelong College — 6 goals 9 behinds.

For the winning team Doggett was perhaps the strongest, and was well supported by Joyce, Clapin, Paterson, and Croft. The most prominent College players were J. Hawkes, Macpherson, Riggall, C. McArthur, D'Helin, Sharland, Ricketts, Langslow, and Steele. Goals were secured by Hawkes (2), R. McArthur, Sharland, Ricketts, and Steele.

Moxham again acted as field umpire. A. R. Moreton was our representative as goal umpire, with D. Hope on the boundary.

COLLEGE v. WESLEY COLLEGE.

This year we met Wesley on the Corio Oval, on August 9th. The only alteration in the College team was the inclusion of R. Sutherland, Paterson being unable to play. Wesley had established a fine reputation particularly in the strong and accurate work of their forwards. They had the good fortune to win the toss, and kicked with a strong wind, which had dropped almost completely by the last change; while wet squalls set in during the second quarter. Still, for the first three quarters the game was once again satisfactorily even. Macpherson put in some brilliant work on the half back line, especially in the early stages of the game, and Jack Hawkes roved with his usual dash. In ruck, Langslow and Ricketts played strongly, and Steele several times came through well from the wing.

Wesley secured four goals from six attempts in the first quarter; but when we got the wind, accompanied by rain, our kicking was faulty, the board at half-time showing the scoring attempts for the two teams equal, but Wesley 17 points in the lead.

The third quarter, always strenuous, was the hardest fight our lads have put up this year; and the fact the score was only increased against us by 15 points by so strong a team, favoured by the wind, speaks for itself. But it was too hot a battle to continue indefinitely, and Wesley, in the last quarter, came out in fine style, and with system and accuracy that was astounding with a wet ball, quickly added six goals before the final bell sounded. The scores for the game were as follows:—

Wesley—1st quarter, 4 goals 2 behinds; Geelong, 2 behinds. 2nd quarter, Wesley, 5 goals 4 behinds; Geelong, 2 goals 7 behinds. 3rd quarter, Wesley, 6 goals 13 behinds; Geelong, 2 goals 7 behinds. Final, Wesley, 12 goals 17 behinds; Geelong, 3 goals 7 behinds.

For Wesley the most conspicuous were—Bladen, Tulloh, Dixon, Partridge, Lugton, and Newham. For Geelong, in addition to those mentioned above, Riggall, Sharland, D'Helin, C. McArthur, L. Morton, and Bell did well; Carmichael also showing improved form. Goal-kickers—Wesley: Dixon (6), Newham (2), Bedggood, Tulloh, Beatty, Lugton. Geelong: R. McArthur, Hawkes, Riggall.

COLLEGE v. GEELONG GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Of all the Public School games of the season, this match with our old local rivals is always of the most absorbing interest to Geelong. This year that interest was, if possible, intensified by the fact that, judged by the previous games with other schools the teams would be very evenly matched, and, moreover, both were fighting to avoid the distinction of having won no game for the season.

The College team consisted of E. Riggall (capt.), J. Hawkes, L. Langslow, C. McArthur, L. Brooke, F. Apted, W. Ricketts, W. R. McPherson, W. Sharland, C. Bell, L. Morton, F. Steele, F. Lee, J. Pater-son, J. Carmichael, J. D'Helin, C. Quick, R. McArthur. It was gratifying to be able to include a full team, including the five boys who have been nursing injuries for the previous fortnight.

After a fine morning on August 24th, it was a great disappointment that it should have set in the worst football day of the season; notwithstanding this there was a large and enthusiastic crowd to witness the game, which proved to be strenuous from start to finish, but played in the best of spirit.

Having the advantage of the wind, the College began the attack in drenching rain, which made straight kicking difficult. Five behinds were scored before Jack Hawkes secured the first goal, but soon afterwards another one came from Carmichael. Grammar's prompt reply with a couple of fine dashes, and as many goals, left the score at quarter-time all too little in our favour.

College — 2 goals 7 behinds
Grammar— 2 goals 1 Dehind

The second quarter brought Grammar to the attack, and for some time our backs kept the ball well on the far wing, and prevented scoring, until, largely due to Hasker's efforts, the "Light Blues" twice got the ball through the big posts. The scores at half-time were :

Grammar— 4 goals 4 behinds
College — 2 goals 7 behinds

On re-opening, the College made a determined effort to make final use of the wind to put the side in a safe position, and eventually got through their opponents' defence and scored four goals. This gave them a lead of 17 points, just enough to make the game excitingly interesting, with the issue very much in doubt. At the last change the board showed—

College — 6 goals 9 behinds
Grammar— 4 goals 4 behinds

The last quarter resolved itself into a question of staying power, and was fought out to the finish. The game became very over-crowded, which, with the wet conditions added, made good football impossible; yet it provided all the excitement that either players or spectators could wish; for, after hitting the post from a difficult angle, and with still six points to make up, Grammar were battling hard to get the one thing needful—a single goal, and that is what the College team succeeded in denying them. The final result was:—

Geelong College —6 goals 9 behinds (45 points)

Geelong Grammar School —5 goals 9 behinds (39 points)

Out of such a game, under such conditions, it is hard to give due credit to a side in which every player at some time did excellent work. Some of the things one remembers are Hawkes' roving; Langslow's strenuous and unfailing work in ruck; Macpherson's half-back play; Apted's fine defence, always safe; D'Helin's clever piece of roving on tin* wing, and Bob McArthur's two goals in the third quarter. Riggall, Sharland, Morton, and Quick were also prominent at times. For the Grammar School, Hasker played like a champion, and was well supported by some very sterling players.

The College's goals were secured by J. Hawkes (2), R. McArthur (2), Carmichael and Langslow.

The excitement in—and out—of the dressing room will not soon be forgotten; and while appreciating the pleasures of a victory, we congratulate our worthy rivals on their keen, sportsmanlike game.

Elliott acted as field umpire.

We offer congratulations to Major J. C. Kininmonth, D.S.O., on his recent marriage.

A. A. W. Hooper has been gazetted Captain; he has been awarded the Military Cross.

Lancelot Strachan has been admitted to practice as a Barrister, and has rooms at Selborne Chambers, Chancery Lane.

Walter Gibson, who is back in Australia after some interesting experiences as a prisoner in Germany, called at the School during the term, to renew old acquaintanceships.

Lance-Cpl. Alexander ("Mick") Morris also called recently. He has been invalided home from the front, and is glad to enjoy once more the blue skies and the sunshine of Australia.

One of the spectators at the football match against Xavier College was J. D. Blair. He is managing a rubber plantation in Borneo, and has had an extended holiday in Victoria.

B. H. CAVANAGH

E. R. CAVANAGH.

A. W. CAVANAGH

(An unusual distinction.)

We are glad to be able to give the portraits of three brothers, all of them Old Collegians, who have been granted the Distinguished Conduct Medal during the War. (Block kindly lent by the Proprietors of "The Herald.")

iQ

Old boys were sorry to notice that Ted Rankin was unable to umpire on Old Boys' Day, owing to indisposition—the first time he has missed for about fourteen years. The advent of warmer weather has put him in good fettle again.

We are sorry to have to record the death of W. E. Mitchell, of the Upper Murray, and of H. I. Farrell, of West Australia.

Sergt. Hal Sewell, who has seen three years of service, is likely to return to Australia soon.

Jim Bell sailed for the front on July 23rd.

An old identity of College functions has passed away, in the person of James Osborne, of Clyde. In his day he was an excellent athlete, being Captain of the College Cricket and Football teams in 1875. He was one of the founders of the Old Geelong Collegians' Association.

We congratulate Lieut. Myles O'Hara on his marriage.

Lieut. C. M. Stodart has been awarded the Military Cross.

Capt. J. D. Rogers has been mentioned in despatches a second time; Major K. A. McKenzie, D.S.O., has been mentioned also.

Lieut. Alan Tait, our clever "goal-sneak" of about a dozen years' ago, is still doing good work in "the forward lines." He has been awarded the Military Cross. He enlisted from Edinburgh, in the Royal Scots, in 1914; was wounded in 1916, and got his commission in 1917.

Harry Turner Shaw, of the R.F.C., has been promoted Major in the newly constituted Royal Air Force, and is in command of a training squadron, in England. He has received the distinction of the Mons Star. This is given only to the men of the first seven divisions who were actually serving in France for that period of the war, including the retreat from Mons and the advance of the Marne. He is also entitled to wear the red and three blue chevrons for his length of active service, which dates from the outbreak of the war.

Bob Birnie, who was recently in Australia, has arrived safely again at Salonika.

Dr. Alec Birnie is Resident Doctor to the London General Military Hospital.

Jim Hope and Rob Scott have arrived safely in the "Old Country/' and are taking up their duties there. On his first day in London, Jim quite unexpectedly met his brother Rowland, not having any idea that he was there.

Tom Hawkes and Les Brumley expect to leave for the front very shortly. Tom has made a name for himself as a footballer at Broadmeadows, and has acted as Captain of the 11th Reinforcements' Football Team.

Lieut. G. S. McArthur is now out of hospital in England. As soon as he can get an artificial limb, he intends joining the Royal Flying Corps. Word has come through that, in the fighting in which he lost his leg, he was mentioned in Sir D. Haig's despatches, and recommended for the Military Cross.

W. R. Jewell has qualified as a Member of the Institute of Chemists of Great Britain and Ireland. In the absence of a Professor, he recently lectured to student aviators at Sheffield, on "Pyrometry," and the magnetic properties of iron and steel."

Can someone verify for us the report, which has reached us unofficially, that R. Buchanan has gained a Military Medal?

Dr. Pillow visited the School before leaving for England, to try to enlist in the Engineers.

Lieut. C. James has gone back to England to re-offer his services. He was wounded at Gallipoli; afterwards joined the Royal Flying Corps and acted as instructor in flying in France. He was afterwards discharged for his eyesight, but is keen to get into things again.

The Headmaster wishes to acknowledge the receipt of letters or postcards from the following:—H. N. Hall, A. G. Maclean, R. Officer, R. Lambie, D. Oliver, K. Doig, L. E. Reid, R. P. Blake, W. S. Hedges, A. Levy, J. L. Sharland, R. A. Berry, H. I. Gibb, "Johnnie" Walker, C. M. Calvert, A. J. Cruise, C. J. Ireland, L. Richardson, A. Milne, A. Morris, W. A. S. Dunlop.

Cards have been received from Egypt from H. I. Gibb, and H. M. Hedges. The former mentions that Wilfred Macmillan won the 880 yards' race at the Camp sports; the latter sends some interesting snapshots, one of which represents himself as trying to bathe in a tub of very exiguous proportions.

A letter from Jim Hope contains some splendid cards to illustrate the journey through the Panama Canal.

The design at the head of School Notes is contributed by L. M. Cotton.

Tom B. Hawkes, when in Geelong on final leave, called at the College to say good-bye.

Tom Rand, who was acting as Flying Instructor in England, had the misfortune a few months ago to have a bad fall, through a mistake of one of his pupils. He was considerably knocked about, and when last we heard he was in hospital, in Gloucester, slowly recovering. His old College Friend, "Johnnie" Walker, was the first to appear on the scene when the crash took place.

In a letter addressed from Khartoum, Bimbashi G. N. I. Morrison mentions that he is in command of a unit of "Nuba Territorials" of his own. He was at Dilling, a place with no white man within 100 miles. To get there he travelled 428 miles by rail and then "trekked" for another 100. He does not expect to get any leave for at least a year. Before going South he had dined with the Sirdar and the Chief Commissioner of Somaliland.

Old Boys Day.

(Adapted from "The Geelong Times")

Old Boys' Day was held on June 14th. A large number of Old Boys, including some returned soldiers, assembled at the College. An exhibition game of football was given by the present boys, but the cold windy weather militated against good football. After the game the Old Boys were entertained at afternoon tea by the Principal (Mr. W. T. Price). Owing to so many Old Boys being at the war, the Annual Dinner was not held this year.

Subsequent to the afternoon function the annual business meeting of the College was held in the Norman Morrison Memorial Hall. The Hon. H. F. Richardson, M.L.C., president, occupied the chair.

The hon. secretary (Mr. S. B. Calvert) read the Committee's Annual Report, which, among other things, stated that—"During the year three oak chairs were presented for use in the Norman Morrison Hall by Messrs. J. R. Osborne, Captain Tom Kerr, M.C., and Captain W.J. Reid, M.C. An honour board for rowing has been hung in the hall, presented by Old Collegians to Mr. W. H. Pincott to commemorate nine years' valued service to the School as coach. Mr. Robert C. Bell has presented a beautiful clinker racing boat, which was launched at Geelong in May, and christened "Rex Bell." Congratulations are extended to Mr. James Robertson, his son, William M. Robertson, and grandson, James T. Robertson; a group photograph of the three has been hung at the College to record the "first of three generations of Geelong Collegians." With so many regular subscribers absent from the country, your Association receipts have been reduced, and the Treasurer's balance-sheet shows only a small credit balance of £2/7/9 for the year. Many members have already paid their subscriptions for the new year in advance. The life membership account shows a credit balance of £320/5/-, which is vested in war bonds and savings bank account. Eight new life members have been enrolled during the past year. Your Association has reason to feel proud of its members, since over 480 have already been accepted for service in the great war; many others have volunteered, but failed to pass the medical test. A large number has won distinctions, and it is with sorrow that we add to the list many men who have given their lives for the Empire, 70 having been killed. We mourn their loss and honour them. We hope for good news of those posted as missing, 'and to all Old Boys who are fighting we send our prayers for their safe keeping and return. Since the last report the School house, "Warrinn," has been greatly improved; new bathing accommodation with hot water service added, new stabling and cow sheds erected, and additions, which were completed last year have proved a live asset to the College, and provide comfort for both boys and masters. The members of the College Council, comprising eight of your Old Boys, and the Principal of the School, are satisfied with the working of the College and have confidence in its future. This feeling is fully endorsed by those who have been closely associated with its progress. Mr. F. S. Shannon has been duly elected by the Church Assembly as a member of the Council, in place of Mr. W. H. Reid, who resigned when leaving for Sydney. The College last year completed another successful year, and the Committee, on behalf of the members, heartily congratulate the Old School on its policy of progressiveness. Congratulations are offered for the good position taken by the College in the University Examinations during the year.

The election of Office-bearers resulted as follows:—President, Mr. Robert C. Bell; Vice-Presidents, Mr. J. Gatehouse and Dr. W. W. Hope; Committee, Messrs. A. L. Baird, Neil Campbell, J. A. Cochrane, Andrew S. Chirside, W. J. Dennis, P. C. Dowling, James D'Helin, L. N. Hurst, A. Longden, R. B. Keays, F. E. Moreton, Campbell McArthur, W. MacMullen, S. R. Roebuck, W. M. Robertson, E. R. Sparrow, J. F. S. Shannon, Dr. R. R. Wettenhall, W. A. Waugh, R. J. Young, and the Principal of the College (ex-officio); Hon. Treasurer, Mr. A. W. Gray; Hon. Secretary, Mr. Stanley B. Calvert; Hon. Auditors, Mr. T. G. Cole and Mr. J. MacMullen. .

A lengthy discussion ensued on the War Memorial proposal. It was agreed to establish an Endowment War Memorial Fund, to which reference is made in another column. This scheme appealed to many of the Old Boys as being highly practical.

WAR MEMORIAL FUND

At the Annual Reunion of Old Boys, held at Geelong, on the 14th June, a unanimous resolution was carried to establish an Endowment War Memorial Fund, the interest from which to be applied to Scholarships and Bursaries, and, in special conditions, to a War Memorial Building or Monument, bearing the names of those who have served their country; the Fund to be controlled by Trustees elected by the Old Collegians' Association.

Extended payments, War Bonds, and gifts by Will were promised, and upwards of £1800 was offered at the meeting.

Since the last issue of the "Pegasus" the following Old Boys have given their lives for their country:—

J. W. FENTON
H. W. PURNELL
A. G. ROWAN
P. B. SEWELL
T. N. WILLIS

H. W. PURNELL.

T. N. WILLIS.

P. B. SEWELL,

C. H. LYON.

Lieut. C. H. Lyon attended the College 1901-1902, 1904-1906. He proved himself a good all-round athlete. After a year at Dookie College, he was made overseer of Dynevor Downs Station, in Queensland, and in 1911, took up land in West Australia. He enlisted from there in 1914 as private, but afterwards transferred to the 8th Light Horse. In spite of a succession of bad luck with illness and accident, he took part in some of the hottest fighting at Gallipoli and Gaza. After the Gaza fighting he was made 1st Lieutenant in the Imperial Camel Corps. He was shot by a sniper on 7th November, 1917, at Khuweilfeh, near Beersheba. He was a great favourite both with officers and men. Amongst the many tributes to his worth, perhaps, the following letter, received from his batman, is, on account of its evident sincerity, the most eloquent : "I can tell you the Section felt his loss very badly, and we kidded ourselves for having such a fine officer and gentleman. Mr. Lyon was one of the whitest, and he was loved by all who knew him, and I never heard one man speak a bad word of him/'

Sgt. H. W. Purnell entered College in 1905, and attended for three years. On leaving the College he took up wool sorting, and to gain experience visited New South Wales and Queensland, besides taking the course at the Gordon Technical College. He then took charge of his father's farm at Moriac. When at the College he gained a medal as a member of the Junior Rifle Team which, in 1907, competed for the Sargood Shield. He enlisted in 1915, and in September of that year left for Egypt, with the 13th Light Horse. After several engagements, and on the call for men for France, he volunteered for the Artillery, and left Egypt in March, 1916, with the 2nd Divisional Ammunition Corps, and was then transferred to the 105th Howitzer Battery. With the exception of two short leaves in England and one in Paris, he was engaged continually with the Howitzers, until he fell on May 29th, of this year. During part of this time he was under Major Paul, who is well known by Old Collegians. A few days prior to his death, with two other gunners, he extinguished some burning charges in the gun pit and man-handled the Howitzer from the pit; for this he was awarded the Military Medal.

Capt. P. B. Sewell entered the College in 1907, and left in 1910, after passing the Junior Public Examination. Subsequently he took the Medical Course at the Melbourne University, and in 1916 gained the degrees M.B. and B.S. He immediately enlisted with the rank of Captain. After experience in local camps and hospitals, he was attached to a South Australian Battalion, and sailed from Adelaide in December, 1916. He was medical officer at Park House, Salisbury, and other camps, and was sent to France in July, 1917. He was later appointed R.M.O. to the 50th Battalion, and followed their fortunes until the end. On April 24th of the present year he left Battalion Headquarters to locate and establish an aid post, but was shot in the throat by a machine-gun bullet and killed instantly. He was buried in the cemetery beside the Amiens-Villers Brettonneux Road. Letters have been received from two Old Collegians, Capt. Ken Purnell and Major Roy Lambie, stating that they had seen the cross on his grave, and telling of the splendid work he had done.

Lance-Corporal T. N. Willis entered the College in 1911. On leaving School he chose to go on the land in preference to entering a profession. He was always keen on military work and, joining the Light Horse, he passed all the examinations entitling him to become Sergeant-Major. After experience of station life in Queensland, he enlisted as a private, in August, 1916. While in France he obtained his certificate as 1st class signaller. He was promoted to Lance-Corporal on September 24th, 1917, and two days later was killed by a shell explosion, near Ypres.

Lieut. J. W. Fenton died on June 19th, after having been severely gassed and wounded, on June 3rd. He enlisted as a gunner in the Field Artillery, in July, 1915, and in October, 1917, was awarded the Military Medal for conspicuous bravery in the field. At the same time he was promoted from gunner to 2nd Lieutenant. He attended the College in 1909.

Corporal A. G. Rowan, who was previously reported as wounded and missing, has been officially reported as killed in action "somewhere in France/" on 4th October, 1917. No further details have reached us. He was at the College in 1912-13.

Just as we go to press news has come through that Fen. Pillow had died of wounds, and that his brother Roy had been killed in an accident in the Flying School.

Our sympathy is extended to their relatives.

Further particulars will be published in next issue.

Letters from Old Boys at the Front.

From Major H. T. Shaw, England, March, 1918 :—

"I wish I could show you around this and the next door aerodrome for a couple of days. The developments in flying for the last couple of years are something astounding. Speed, power, and tractability beyond all dreams. I have three types of machines in my sheds, but nothing very interesting. All air cooled machines, 80 h.p. 8 cylinders, and 140 h.p. 12 cylinders. Three other squadrons on the 'Drome have other types. A 12 cylinder 250 h.p. is a magnificent job. A 6 cylinder 200 h.p., and a 6 cylinder 160 h.p., are both very fine machines. The spare lift these machines have for their size is surprising. The old idea of making everything feather-weight has gone. Of course engines are made as light as possible, generally about three to five lbs. per BHP, but we think nothing of cramming an extra four or five cwt. on to a decent machine, in the way of guns, bombs, etc., while some of the really big machines have a useful lift of several tons. Some of the small Scouts don't go much more across the wings than a decent-sized eagle. Some as small as 16 feet, carry over 100 h.p.! Speed?—Well anything under 100 miles per hour is no use over seas, and the three miles a minute is now no 'pipe dream.'

Flying is an inexhaustible subject, and I am as keen as possible, but as far as the actual flying goes, I am rather out of form just at present. I am thoroughly run down and tired and want a long rest. I can handle my own machine with certainty and comfort of a car, but have no heart for stunting, and feel the strain of instructing rather. However, this job does not demand that I fly so much, and I am trying to study myself a bit. . . . I wish I could show you round here. My office table has reams of papers, army forms, army books, orders, contradictory orders, and goodness knows what not. You would be interested, amused, and horrified, I think!"

From Roy Malcolm, France, 18th March :—

". . . Here I am again, back safe and sound at the unit after the best holiday I ever had in my life, and one which I will never forget. I used to read a lot of the Riviera of France. Well, it's a perfect dreamland. . . . After forty-two hours' travelling we arrived at Nice, and found the glorious sunshine, the streets lined with palms, and beautiful buildings. We made for the hotel which we decided to stay at, and a beautiful place it was. On entering we came into a glorious lounge covered in palms, and beautiful lounge chairs and couches. . . . I thought I was at Menzies. . . . All along the promenade are beautiful spreading palms, and gardens with flowers of all colours; studded here and there are small tables shaded with huge red and white striped giant umbrellas, where we used to sit and partake of something to quench our thirst. . . . We met a very fine Englishman, by name Mr. Irwin, who used to take us home every day to his place for afternoon tea, and oh! what a magnificent home. I was afraid I would trip and break something. When war broke out he was living in Brussels, and was the last man to leave when the shells were bursting in the city, and ever since he has been residing in Nice. His wife is a very fine lady, and speaks nine languages; gee, my chum and I were ever so happy. . . . Next day we went to Monte Carlo. The scenery is far too beautiful to describe. It takes an hour and a half by train, and the line runs all along the sea coast, winding in and out into little bays; the rugged hills, the innumerable colours of flowers, the houses with red roofs, the lawns, the gardens, the deep blue and green of the ocean, make me tremble with excitement every time I speak of them. . . . The season is now at its height. The Casino goes on just the same as before the war, and to see thousands going in to play, and watch the crowds coming out, and the expressions on their faces, it is quite easy to pick out the losers. . . . The French custom is that whenever you meet anyone, no matter how many times a day, you must shake hands, and of course every time we entered the dining hall we would have to do our rounds and shake hands and bow. Oh slosh! I was some hand at this affair. . . . We returned to Paris in comfort, where we spent two nights before returning to our unit."

From C. J. Ireland., Palestine, 30/5/18 :—

" . . . My Battalion crossed the Jordan on the 24th March, and took part in the operations there, re-crossing the river on the 4th April. The Jordan itself is not a very impressive sight, it lies in a large flat valley between two ranges of hills; these two ranges are about fourteen miles apart; for about a mile on either side of the river the ground is very broken. The river, itself, where we crossed, is only about twenty yards wide, but the current is very strong, and the banks are thickly covered with undergrowth, so that bridging the river was no easy matter. After re-crossing the Jordan, we rode through Jericho, which stands on the plain about four miles from the river. The town was not very large, but some of the buildings, though of an old design, looked very comfortable. . . . I am now attached to Battalion H.Q. as a scout and sniper. I did a short school early this year on the two subjects, and obtained a first-class pass."

From Air Mechanic A. Levy, England :—

" . . . I guess you have heard of the death of E. D. Grant, of Wesley College. The London papers said that he was one of the best pilots in England. He was with my squadron right from the time that he was a pupil to the time he became an instructor. He was only 20, and a more staunch friend the old Public School boys of my squadron will never find. . . . He did things at 100 feet from the ground that other pilots would not do at 1000, and it only meant some little thing to go wrong with either himself or the machine, and he would have no chance to save himself. Well, something did go wrong, and it was the end. . . .

I am motor-cycling from daylight to dark, doing despatch work; although the hours are long and the distances great, one can't growl when one is safe in England."

From W. S. Hedges (In the Field), 24/4/18 :—

" . . . I saw Willie Dunlop yesterday, he looks tip-top; the last time I saw him was in Tel-el-Kebir, just before we left for France. . . . I have been particularly lucky in this war, as I have been in most of the big 'pushes' and have only been wounded once, and have never been away sick. I came away with the 3rd Brigade, and have been with it ever since. I have had a commission over a year now, and am feeling in tip-top condition and can stand a fair amount of service yet."

From Major R. Lamble, France, 7/4/18 :—

" . . . In spite of over two and a half years' absence, I find that the 15 years at the College has still too much hold on me to let me forget the many pleasant times I had there, and the sight of the Xmas "Pegasus" yesterday, decided me to write. . . . We woke up one day in a very delightful back area, where we were training, to find that the long threatened push had started. From that time for nearly a week we were making moves on very short notice, and having at times plenty of excitement. It is wonderful how little sleep one can do with when the occasion demands—I beat all my records this time. However, we got here in time to be of great use. It was pitiful to see the population making their way back with all they could take of their household goods, in many cases pushing their loads on the big barrows that are so common all through the country. . . . This is quite the best part of France we have been in—the Somme and the Ancre are full of fish, and the country is like that which the Barrabools would be if they were covered, with small woods dotted about. . . Alan Tait called in two days ago—he has a commission in a Scottish regiment, and seeing Australians in the village, came in to see if he knew anyone, and we both got a surprise."

From D. Oliver, Oxford :—

" . . . I am returning your New Year's card to you, as a casualty, for it sustained a couple of shell wounds while engaged in the defence of Amiens. In conjunction with my pocket-book, it saved my right lung from perforations which, though small, might have been troublesome. I thank you very much for that card: you might have your next lot printed on steel. Mericourt, on the River Ancre, was the scene of the accident, in consequence of which I am now enjoying the English spring. If I had thought of it, I should have murmured 'Sic itur ad Astra/ as I rose in the air when the shell burst."

Just as we go to press we have received an interesting letter from Mr. MacRoberts, dated June 23rd, 1916, from which it is not possible to make more than a brief extract. He mentions having met Archie Spittle, Bill Leggatt, Keith Doig, Tom Kerr, Alec Allardyce, Arthur Collins, Jimmy Pearce, Syd. Appleford, and Ralph Crisp. (Their Military and Medical titles can be obtained on application—Ed.) He further says . . . "I have had a rather strenuous time during the last three months, but managed to miss a good deal of unpleasantness which other people had to endure. I was at an Infantry School when the push began, and we were immediately sent back to our units and scrambled over half France before we knew where we were. I am now at another school, and am having a very restful time. I have been at tons of schools now, and learn the same things at each one. Then just when we are about to come to something interesting, the course comes to a sudden conclusion and I am left in my original condition of ignorance. . . . I think it would be hard for you to realize the intense desire that at times comes over us just to get home again and leave this war behind us for ever. . . . and yet I am not sorry I came."

Debating Society.

Although this year the membership is not so large as it has been in some previous years, those who joined the Society proved themselves very enthusiastic, and some splendid debates have been the result.

Mr. Harry kindly undertook to take up the position of Vice-president, vacated by Mr. John Cameron, who left at the end of last year; and he has ably carried on the latter's good work. Both he and Mr. Calvert, who continues to take a great interest in the Society, have been good enough to offer a prize for the most improved speaker.

At the outset, W. C. Peter and A. E. Purnell were elected Premier and Leader of the Opposition respectively. The first meeting was held on June 15th, when the subject was "That Picture Shows and other Theatrical Amusements should be under Government control." Many promising speakers came forward. A fortnight later came Prepared Speeches, followed on July 13th by a general debate on the subject, "That the present Repatriation Scheme is satisfactory." A large number spoke, and an interesting debate resulted in a win for the negative side. Arrangements had been made to hold a debate with Yarra Street Men's Club, on July 27th, but owing to a parade of the M.U.R., this had to be postponed till next term. In its place a debate was held between two teams of three, on the subject, "That the German Colonies should be Returned After the War." After a good contest the affirmative side were declared winners.

On August 9th, a debate on the same subject was held with Wesley College, pur team taking the affirmative side. Mr. C. Birdsey very kindly undertook to act as arbiter, and performed his duties to everybody's satisfaction. The College team consisted of W. P. Ricketts, C. Peter, and J. G. Steele, while Wesley were represented by Brisbane, Scott and Rodger. The debate was well contested and some good speeches were made on both sides. At the end Mr. Birdsey announced his decision in favour of the College by 275 points to 266. He then gave the speakers some useful advice, which was much appreciated. The whole evening was a great success, and we hope to make this debate an annual event.

The following evening was devoted to Impromptu Speeches, some of which were very creditable.

Cadet Notes.

Since the beginning of this term, the new military year has commenced, and the boys of the 1904 Quota have joined us. They are well advanced through their training in the Junior Cadets, and are working very thoroughly and earnestly. We have lost, through advancement to the Citizen Forces, a number of fine cadets, including several N.C.O's. The M.U.R. detachment is now larger than it has been for some years, and has fifteen members.

We can no longer boast of being a Company. Owing to re-organisation ordered by Headquarters, the College Company, although of greater strength than before, is now styled 16th Platoon, D. Company—and this, too, though our strength is far above that of the average platoon. A result of this alteration is to reduce the number of officers in the corps to one, but through the kindness of the Area Officer (Lieut, Kimberley, D.C.M.), 2nd Lieut. L. C. Cruickshank is to be allowed to continue drilling with us.

An Examination for promotion to N.C.O. rank was held recently, and many cadets tried to obtain stripes. Congratulations are offered to those who were successful.

It is to be hoped that all cadets will continue to do their best to keep up the honour of the platoon, as representing the College, and to justify the good opinion the Area Officer has formed of us. We greatly appreciate his regular attendance at our parades, and the assistance in our work which he is so well qualified to give us.

Random Notes.

The monotony of School life was greatly relieved the other day by some laughing jackasses, which perched on top of the School tower and indulged in a cachinnatory outburst of song. Some kindred spirits among the boys entered into an animated interchange of remarks with them, and seemed to have no difficulty in making themselves understood.

When a master, quoting from some notes on "The Bard," said, "He was standing on an inaccessible crag," a Sixth-Form boy aptly enquired, "Then how did he get there?"

The quiet of the Upper Fifth Scripture Lesson was rudely disturbed by a prominent member of the Cricket XI. insisting on reading a verse in Exodus as: "And thus shall ye eat it; with your lions girded."

In addition to the fact that "potuisse" = "to have abled," we learn from the Middle V., (1) that in Ballarat there are fine statues and trees growing up the centre, with the trams running down one side and up the other; (2) that John, like a number of other English Kings, died M overeating himself,

The accompanying lines were unobtrusively placed where the Editor could not fail to find them. The writer seems to have a grievance which he has expressed in something like sonnet form :—

Bound down by chains on to the hateful bench,
 Forced to the work he does not wish to do,
 The schoolboy sits himself and starts anew
 The task ; and gives up all his sport—a wrench
 The thought of which makes face and features blench;
 For on this practice rests his chance for crew
 Or team, and as his friends go past him to
 Their sport, he settles down to Greek or French.
 O friend, come, say, shall this remain, shall those Who might perchance save us from great defeat
 Toil at their desks, while those who are not so
 Go to the field attired in football clothes
 And take the place of these? Oh is-it-m-eet
 That they should suffer while these others go?

AH FIT AND AH FAT.

This story was told me by a returned Missionary, so it must be true. Ah Fit and Ah Fat were two Chinese boys of almost equal age, and of very similar dispositions. Each of them wished to pass his public examinations (of which there is a plentiful supply in China), but each wished to do it with the minimum of exertion. It is in trifles such as these that the difference between the temperament of the youths of China and those of Australia is shown. Ah Fit's father was a printer, and more than that, a printer of public examination question?. Ah Fit junior, of course, did not have access to the printing-room, but being a healthy boy, he knew where the printing machine stood; it was in fact very close to the door. Now the examination of Hang Hoo (which as everyone knows is the Chinese equivalent to our Intermediate), was at hand, and little Ah Fit and his friend Ah Fat simply had to pass it, or they might never be admitted to the Grand Order of Celestial Cabbage Gardeners. The subject that they both dreaded most was Algebra, and by some miraculous means, or possibly by intuition, Ah Fit knew that the questions in that subject were already set up ready for printing. Then it was that the spirit of evil entered into young Ah Fit, and suggested that for once just this once, he might gain some advantage from the fact that his father was a printer of examination questions. Naturally Ah Fat was taken into his confidence and they proceeded to carry out the nefarious plan hatched in Ah Fit's fertile brain. Ah Fit attired himself, amongst other things, in a pair of snow-white pants, the colour, or absence of colour, being necessary, as you will see, for the complete success of their design. The two conspirators then hung about the printing-room until Ah Fit—how, we cannot tell—knew that his father had just passed the ink over the Algebra paper already referred to. At this stage the need for a capable confederate is seen. Ah Fat at once raised a cry of "Fire!" Ah Fit, the elder, being as curious as any ordinary person, printer though he was, left his machine and rushed into the street, and the resourceful Ah Fat lured him round the corner by further cries. Seeing that the coast was clear, but knowing that his father would under no circumstances stay away long, Ah Fit, the younger, slipped into the printing-room and with a quick movement deftly seated himself on the machine, which was still wet with the inky symbols that would confront the candidates in the Algebra examinations in the near future. He did not stay to investigate his surroundings too minutely, but having accomplished his unhallowed purpose, he rapidly faded away from the neighbourhood to a secluded meeting-place where the faithful Ah Fat soon joined him. It was the work of a moment to shed the snow-white pants and substitute some of a darker hue. The desperate pair then carefully scrutinized the seat of the discarded garment, and there, sure enough, in plain black and white, was the record of the loathed Algebra as it appeared on the machine of the printer. Thus far, as in all true tragedies, success has apparently inclined to the side of the misguided hero; but, also dramatically sudden success met with a correspondingly sudden failure: for to the dismay of the criminal Ah Fit, and of the participator in his crime Ah Fat, it was seen that, in the paper, literal symbols only had been printed and not a single number or index. Ah wily Ah Fit, senior, you were not so innocent as you appeared! We must draw the veil over the succeeding events and hasten to indicate the moral of the story: but on second thoughts, as there are several morals, it will be better to let the reader pick them out for himself.

ON BEING CAREFUL.

The secret of perfection lies in being careful. This was forcibly brought to my mind one day, by the performance of a great pianist; the calm steadiness of his playing was deep, and moving. Especially is it to be noticed in a fine violinist. The bow is led over the strings with precision and utmost care all the while a note is being played, keeping the nerves under control so as not to allow the emotions to impair the purity and clearness of tone. Diligent practice gives technique; but fine playing requires constant care and concentrated attention. This is why great artists are calm and reposeful when performing. Watch the singer, the fine speaker, the good craftsman; in fact, any good performance, and you will not fail to observe the constant presence of exquisite carefulness.

And so it is with every action of our lives; perfect balance is obtained by perfect care, and you will have reached wisdom when you will have learned to discriminate between being careful, and being petty and anxious.

To be careful in small things serves as a schooling, and preparation.—S.

(Reprinted from "The Geelong Times.")

Ill the Norman Morrison Memorial Hall on Tuesday, August 27th, the Geelong College boys presented a very fine programme of athletics and vocal music to the entire satisfaction of a large attendance of men and boys, which included several Old Geelong Collegians, the Revs. T. W. Maguire, J. Hastie, and other friends of the College. The principal (Mr. W. T. Price) performed the duties of chairman. The programme included exercises on the vaulting horse by the seniors and juniors; parallel bar practice and Swedish drill by the seniors; skipping by the juniors; boxing bouts by A. Baird and C. McArthur (juniors) and E. Riggall and R. Macpherson (seniors); a comic boxing match; wrestling by Phillips and Jas. Robertson (juniors) and Riggall and J. W. Robertson (seniors); a smartly formed pyramid on the parallel bars; choruses by the boys under the baton of Mr. Harry, their numbers comprising "Homeland/" "Forty Years On," "Vive la Compagnie" and "For England" (words by the late Corporal J. D. Burns, music by the headmaster of the Wesley College); and a violin solo by Mr. Cuthbert. The boys did great credit to themselves and to their tutor (Mr. B. Harrison) in their athletic display. Mr. Harrison was in comparatively recent years the champion amateur heavyweight and middleweight of Australia, and last evening he, in the company of Riggall, the school captain, gave a demonstration of Ji Jitsu and catch-as-catch-can holds and releases, which was highly interesting and instructive for all the spectators. Before the proceedings were brought to a close with the National Anthem, Mr. Price thanked the Old Collegians and other visitors for their presence. He stated that the object of the entertainment was to raise money for the war funds, and that while the issue of the tickets had to be restricted to the accommodation, he anticipated that the proceeds would amount to £8. Dr. Norman M'Arthur, on behalf of the Old Collegians, expressed their appreciation of the entertainment which had been given that evening, and he hoped that he would experience the pleasure of being present at many more. By the way, Dr. M'Arthur had acted as referee in the boxing matches, and Mr. Price, when replying, said that the entertainment would be repeated annually, and that they hoped Dr. M'Arthur's services would be available for many years to come as referee in the boxing ring.

Since going to press we have had word that the following Old Collegians, whose names do not appear on the list of those who have volunteered, are either in camp or have already sailed for the front : Rev. G. M. Baird, A. A. McCann, F. H. H. Cullen, N. A. Morgan, and W. K. Peacock. We shall include them in the next list.
